

Errata for Draft Municipal Stormwater Permits

Updated December 28, 2011

Draft Phase I Municipal Stormwater Permit

1. Correction on page 13 line 39 and page 34 line 1 in permit condition S5.C.8.a:

Bullets should continue numbering instead of restarting at i; the correct permit numbering should be as highlighted below:

iii. Procedures for eliminating the discharge; including notification of 39 appropriate authorities; notification of the property owner; technical 40 assistance; follow-up inspections; and escalating enforcement and 41 legal actions if the discharge is not eliminated.

iv. Compliance with the provisions in (i), (ii), and (iii), above, shall be 1 achieved by meeting the following timelines:

2. Correction on page 18 line 24 in permit condition S5.C.5.a.iii:

The draft language references an incorrect date; the correct permit language should be as highlighted below:

The local program adopted to meet the requirements of S5.C.5.a(i) 23 through (iii), below shall apply to all applications³ submitted after 24 January 1, 2015 and shall apply to projects approved prior to January 1, 25 2015, which have not started construction⁴ by January 1, 2020.

3. Correction on page 21 line 25 in permit condition S5.C.5.c.i:

Typo in watershed name for King County; the correct permit language should be as highlighted below:

- King County: Bear, Covington, Evans, Issaquah, Jenkins, May, Soos

4. Correction on page 84 line 12 in the definitions and acronyms section of the permit:

The draft permit incorrectly states pre-development when it should say pre-disturbance; the correct permit language should be as highlighted below:

Low Impact Development” (LID) means a stormwater and land use management strategy that strives to mimic pre-disturbance hydrologic processes of infiltration, filtration, storage, evaporation and transpiration by emphasizing conservation, use of on-site natural features, site planning, and distributed stormwater management practices that are integrated into a project design.

Draft Western Washington Phase II Municipal Stormwater Permit

1. Correction on page 29, line 23 of permit reference: “....The local program adopted to meet the requirements of S5.C.4.a(i) through (iii) below,....”

Draft Eastern Washington Phase II Municipal Stormwater Permit

1. Correction on page 32 line 10 in permit condition S5.B5.a:

The draft language references an incorrect permit condition; the correct permit condition reference should be as highlighted below:

The local program adopted to meet the requirements of S5.B.5.a (i) through (v) below shall apply to all applications.....